

Task Description

Task	Description
User is asked to register for application.	Start off at the landing screen and perform a registration. Fill out the form with the necessary information.
User is asked to use the login page.	Return to the landing screen and perform a login using the credentials you have just created.
User is asked to navigate to note taking screen.	After logging in, direct yourself to the note taking screen by “clicking” various buttons on screen.
User is asked to perform a chain of editorial work.	You must upload a pre-written bit of text and you will be asked to make the first sentence the title, then underline it. Highlight every instance of a word. Change some text to bullet points and delete a paragraph.
User is asked to take notes using pencil and paper and then using the note taking system	The experimenter will read two short texts. The user takes notes of the first using pencil and paper and the second with the note taking system
User is asked to answer two quizzes using the notes they took.	The experimenter will give two quizzes of 7 similar questions each on the two different texts.
User is asked to navigate to file organization screen.	You should still be on the note taking screen. Please, navigate to the file organization screen.
User is asked to organize a bundle of files.	You are given a series of files which you will organize to the best of your knowledge.

User is asked to navigate to the create an event menu.	You should still be on the organization screen. Please, navigate to the create an event menu.
User is asked to create an event.	You are asked to fill in the appropriate information on the forms to create an event.
User is asked to navigate to their files. menu.	You should still be on the create an event menu. Please, navigate to the “My Files” menu.
User is asked to log out of the system.	To conclude the testing for the prototype, you are asked to navigate back to the welcome page and logout of the system.